OccPhyz will be hosting the Occupational Health Symposium "Breaking Barriers" on Friday 21 August 2020 at the McGuire's Colmslie Hotel, Morningside QLD.

Early Bird Registration Now Open
All Disciplines Welcome!

About our Symposium

Our 2020 Occupational Health Symposium will be held on Friday 21 August 2020 at The Colmslie Hotel, Morningside in Queensland.

The purpose of this event is to deliver an afternoon of education on occupational and environmental and medical topics for our clients and stakeholders, focusing on mental health, the ageing workforce, musculoskeletal conditions and medicinal cannabis.

Our program will provide a platform for stakeholders across various industries, government and disciplines to connect, with the purpose of hearing from medical experts on topics to assist your understanding of the worker's health.

This is an opportunity for you and your organisation to:

- Engage with medical specialists in this important field of medicine;
- Improve your understanding of the mental health of your workers/claimants/colleagues;
- Contribute to the worker's health and safety in the workplace.

We look forward to your support as we continue to provide education and support with new opportunities to our stakeholders across Australia.
